

What's $1 worth to you?

We all have extra change lying around. Why not take that extra money and thank a teacher?

The purpose of the "One in a Million" initiative is to recognize teachers and to call attention to our society's need for good teachers.

With your minimum donation of only one dollar, everyone wins!

Teachers receive: Name archived by the National Teachers Hall of Fame.

Contributors receive: The honor of recognizing extraordinary teachers who have had an impact on their lives.

Society receives: National awareness of the important role that teachers play.

NTHF receives: Recognition for teachers and elevation of the teaching profession

One in a Million

The "One in a Million—Teachers Who Make a Difference" is a nation-wide initiative to collect the names of one million teachers who have made a difference in students' lives. With this initiative, all teachers past and present can be rewarded. Teachers are the very foundation of society, and this initiative will change the course of education for the future of America. It will also have an immediate and far-reaching impact by stressing the importance of teacher recognition and honoring the teaching profession in American culture.

By donating a minimum of only $1, you can thank the teacher that has made a difference in your life. It's simple and will mean so much to America's honored teachers. Won't you become a part of this exciting initiative to pay tribute to the classroom heroes that shape the future?
